STATE HAS RESTED

Defense Begins Testimony in the Trial of Bevard Charged With Wertz Murder

Strong Case Made By Prosecution But Defense Will Try to Break Down Testimony of Witnesses--No Important Developments Thursday.

The State of Ohio rested its case against Levi Bevard at 10:56, Thursday morning, and it is generally conceded that a strong case has been made which will have to be broken down by very direct and positive evidence on the part of defense.

The evidence of Eva Wertz has gone to the jury, in which she positively stated that she saw Levi Bevard kill her grandmother, Mrs. Frances Wertz. Testimony has also been offered showing that Bevard had a motive to murder his mother-in-law, because of her interference with his courtship of her daughter, Rosa, who is now his wife. The testimony has also tended to prove that Levi was about the place of the murder on the day it was discovered, and was very anxious to see Eva Wertz, the young woman who gave very damaging testimony against him.

The state also proved that Levi Bevard had threatened to "take a club and beat in Mrs. Wertz's head," if she interfered with him.

The testimony of Eva Wertz is now before the jury; if it is believed, Bevard will be found guilty of the most brutal murder ever committed in Licking county.

WITNESSES ARE SEPARATED.

A dramatic incident in connection with the Bevard case Thursday was the exclusion of the defendant's wife, who, of course, had been subpoenaed by the defense.

After the defense's witnesses had been sworn, Mrs. Bevard took her accustomed seat, next to her husband. An order had been issued for a separation of the witnesses, an exception being made in the case of reporters, who had been subpoenaed as witnesses.

Just as the examination of the first witness for the defense began, Mr. Fitzgerald said:

"I insist upon the enforcement of the rule regarding the separation of witnesses."

Mr. B. G. Smyth was on his feet in an instant with the remark:

"You don't mean that this order shall apply to the wife of this defendant?"

I want the order applied to every witness whom you expect to call," replied Mr. Fitzgerald, addressing Mr. Smyth.

"Mrs. Bevard will have to retire," said Judge Seward.

The wife looked at her husband, spoke probably words of comfort to him, and left the court room.

THURSDAY MORNING.

Long before court opened at 9 o'clock the court room was packed with an eager crowd of spectators, anxious to hear every word of the testimony in the Bevard murder case.

Prosecutor Fitzgerald asked the court to make an order that all witnesses for the state retire to the witness room and remain there as there were several whom he wished to see but was unable to find them as they became scattered in the crowd.

Mr. Smyth said that the defendant did not demand a separation of the witnesses and it was an unusual proceeding for the state to ask for the exclusion of its own witnesses, but nevertheless the court made the order, and a number retired.

DR. L. L. MARRIOTT.
Dr. L. L. Marriott of St. Louisville was the first witness. He is at present coroner of Licking county. He said, being examined by T. B. Fulton, "I did not know Frances Wertz; went to the house the evening after she was killed; examined her body; was in company with Undertaker George Bowers; the body was lying on the kitchen floor; her arm and collar bone were fractured and three fractures on the left side of the skull; all fractures were on the same side; each fracture was accompanied by a cut the skin being broken; all fractures were nearly alike; arm was broken about four inches below shoulder; the wound made by some blunt instrument; either fracture of the skull would, in my opinion, cause death; the larger one I should say almost instantaneous; noticed some bruise on the body,

BLOODHOUND THEORY.

The bloodhound theory was in evidence in the Bevard trial on Thursday morning for the first time. Dr. D. M. Smith was on the stand and it was attempted to qualify him as an expert on bloodhounds. Dr. Smith was asked the course of the dogs when they worked on the Wertz case, and began to tell of it. An objection was interposed and sustained by the court, who ruled that the matter would have to be a subject of direct examination on the part of the defense, as the State had introduced no testimony in regard to the dogs.

The court said that if the dogs had trailed the man under arrest the State would then have the right to introduce testimony as to their course, but as a matter of fact, the dogs quit the trail and the subject would have to be a matter of direct testimony by the defense.

her body was very bloody about the face, and also her limbs which were not clothed, at least below the knees; her feet were next to the stairway, probably three feet from it, her head lying toward the east.

"The body was lying diagonally with reference to the room."

Cross examined by Mr. B. G. Smyth.

"First heard of tragedy in the forenoon; got to Wertz's home about 3 o'clock in the afternoon; don't know whether Dr. Legge was there or not, see start of dogs, but it was after they started then I went in the house; saw the dogs unloaded from the automobile, and in the road once after that; it was after dark when the dogs were started, the parties having a lantern; Dr. Legge went in the house with me; there were probably half a dozen people in the kitchen at the time; saw the body moved into the north room where we examined the body; the blood on the limbs looked as if it had been splashed on from below; can't say that when the head went forward and the victim sank down; the hemorrhage may have deluged the feet and legs.

Redirect—"I did not see any shoes on her feet."

MRS. REBECCA HALLIS.

Mrs. Rebecca Hallis was recalled and examined by Mr. Fitzgerald.

"At Jud Wright's I spoke to Levi, and he asked me what they were doing at the Wertz home; he said that if they put dogs on the trail they were liable to track an innocent person."

Cross examined by B. G. Smyth the witness said: "I had a conversation with Mr. Fitzgerald in the hall this morning; he asked me if there was anything I hadn't told yesterday, and I said I hadn't told what Levi said to me. Jud Wright's is about half a mile from the Wertz house. Levi said to me that his baby's name was Grace."

DR. D. M. SMITH.

Dr. D. M. Smith said: "I was present when an examination was made of Mrs. Wertz's body. I saw two fractures of the skull; there was a great deal of blood on the kitchen floor; I think the wounds I saw on the head would have produced a pressure on the brain causing almost instant death; the wounds were made by some blunt instrument; I think Mrs. Wertz was barefooted when I saw her."

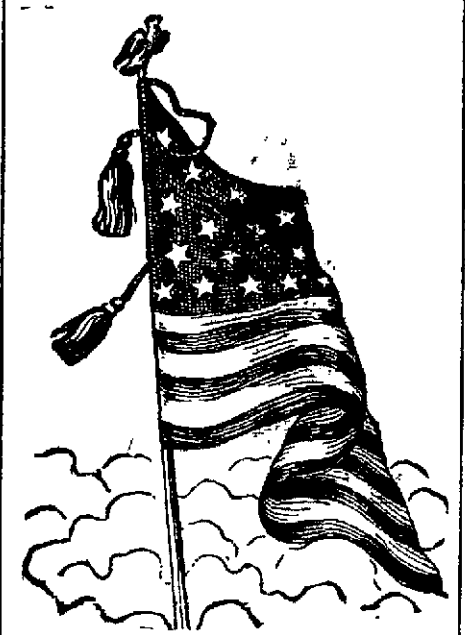

The witness was shown a case knife which he said he had seen, or one like it, at the Wertz home in the possession of Dr. C. F. Legge. The prosecutor offered the knife in evidence, but Judge Seward excluded it for the time being although no objection was made by the defense.

The grounds were that the knife had not been positively identified.

Cross examined by Mr. Phil F. Smyth Dr. Smith said: "The head is supplied with more arteries, and veins than any other part of the body. The arteries being crushed or lacerated, would cause death almost instantaneous; noticed some bruise on the body, Reports Telegrams to Frisco Were Carried By Mail and Not by Wire.

San Francisco, June 14.—The grand jury adopted a report of the subcommittee appointed to investigate the charge that the telegraph companies accepted money for messages and sent them by mail on the days following the earthquake in April. The report says in part:

It is estimated at least a million dollars were collected by the telegraph companies for messages not transmitted by telegraph, and your committee is unable to find that these companies contributed one cent toward the relief fund.

The report expresses the opinion that the interstate commerce law was violated and advises evidence at hand be sent to Roosevelt and laid before the federal grand jury.

LAKE SHORE CO FAVORED STANDARD WITH REBATES

Cleveland, O., June 14.—The interstate Commerce Commission, in a short session this morning showed that Lake Shore Railroad favored the Standard Oil Company with rebates of storage charges at Chicago.

It adjourned to meet at New Orleans. The Standard was given an opportunity to offer evidence in rebuttal but declined to put on witnesses. The independence accepted this as an indication of guilt and were elated.

"The real purpose of again convening here," said Commissioner Prosser, was to give the Standard and the railroad a chance to put on witnesses, in rebuttal. They did not wish to but we showed more of the rebate practice up and made our short session and our trip worth while."

(Bulletin.)

Buffalo, N. Y., June 14.—Roy Knabenshue, the aeronaut, of Toledo, lost control of his airship this morning and dropped into the Niagara river. He and his ship were rescued by the life saving crew. Mr. Knabenshue was slightly hurt.

Washington, June 14.—Navigating the air with seeming ease, Lincoln Beachey, the aeronaut visited Washington this morning, anchoring in the Washington monument grounds. After a brief rest he arose and encircled the monument. About 11 o'clock Beachey left Luna park, four miles south of Washington, in Virginia. Apparently he steered the ship without difficulty. When over the Potomac river he cut figure eight in the atmosphere and dipped and raised his machine at will. Business at the capitol was practically suspended during the flight. Senators and representatives and friends crowded the terraces and balconies more interested in Beachey's aerial stunts than in the affairs of state.

DORCHESTER HOUSE WHERE KING EDWARD AND LONGWORTHS WERE ENTERTAINED.

Dorchester House, Park Lane.

London, June 14.—It is a long time since Dorchester House, London, looked so beautiful as Tuesday, when the King attended a dinner given by Mr. and Mrs. Whitelaw Reid at which Mr. and Mrs. Longworth were present.

Everywhere there were flowers—roses, lilies, crimson lilies and other pretty blossoms, some in baskets, others artistically arranged in pots, this being particularly noticeable up the staircase.

The guests naturally assembled before the king arrived and were escorted to the library, where they awaited his arrival. Sticking toilets were worn Mrs. Whitelaw Reid being attired in mauve, with a diamond tiara and necklace.

Mrs. Longworth, President Roosevelt's daughter, was charming in a handsome dress of white satin, and her jewels, too, were remarkable.

SECRETARY TAFT WANTS ACTION

Type of Panama Canal Must Be Settled Before Congress Closes Its Business Session.

Washington, June 14.—An unexpected snag was struck in the movement for an early adjournment, and it is possible that the type of the Panama canal must be settled before congress closes its business. Secretary Taft was in conference with Speaker Cannon and Chairman Hepburn of the committee on interstate and foreign commerce, and there is a disposition to settle the type of canal before the adjournment of congress. Secretary Taft is earnest in his efforts to have this matter settled before work proceeds much further. It is possible that when the appropriation of $25,000,000 for continuing the work on the canal is reached that an amendment for an 85-foot lock canal may be made, which would mean a determination of the type before this great supply measure could become a law.

ICE DEALERS HEARING JUNE 18

Cases are Postponed Until Next Monday by Mayor McCleery

ICE FAMINE NOT PREDICTED

COMPANY HAS NOT REFUSED TO SELL OUTSIDERS

Manager Crane Says Plant Is Running Full Capacity and Demand Takes All the Supply.

The expected hearing of the members of the alleged Newark Ice Trust, who were ordered before the Mayor Thursday morning on affidavits charging them with the violation of the Ohio anti-trust laws, did not come off as scheduled. The dealers named in the affidavits, Samuel Imboof, Geo. A. Young, Fred Mohlenpach, W. M. Zentmeyer and Milton H. Francis appeared at the Mayor's court with their attorneys and after the affidavits were read, arrangements were made for an early hearing.

Attorney B. F. McDonald, Charles W. Miller and Carl Norpell have been retained by the defendants to represent them in the case and City Solicitor Frank A. Bolton will prosecute the cases for the state. It was decided to set Monday afternoon at 1 o'clock for the hearing and Mayor McCleery allowed the five ice dealers in the combination to go on their own recognizance.

Inasmuch as all the affidavits read alike and the evidence in the five cases will be identical, it was decided to prosecute but one of the cases and let the decision, whatever it might be, rule in all cases. The attorneys for the defense decided to take the affidavit against Mr. Zentmeyer as a test case and this will be the one to be prosecuted Monday.

There was some talk Thursday of including the Newark Ice and Cold Storage Company as one of the parties in the alleged trust or combination, as it was stated that the company had refused to sell ice to dealers other than those stated in the alleged combination. In an interview with Mr. Fred Crane, representing the company, Mr. Crane stated that he had not refused to sell ice to any one but that his plant is running at full capacity all the time and is unable to supply the great demand for the product. Mr. Crane stated that there is a scarcity of ice and that his company holds contracts to furnish ice to Utica, Shawnee and Chillicothe people, besides supplying Columbus parties with all the surplus they could turn out over and above the regular contracts. He stated that he had been unable to supply the Columbus people with but little ice and the demand in the other places was too great.

In the course of the conversation Mr. Crane predicted an ice famine this summer. He stated that the natural ice crop was unusually short and that Sandusky had one-fifth the usual amount of lake ice. Other sources of supply report an equally short crop and the only ice obtainable from markets where natural ice is procured is in Northern Michigan. By the time this ice is shipped as far south as Newark, there is but little profit in handling it unless the price is advanced considerably.

Mr. Crane stated that his company had not yet advanced the price of ice, but that it is about the same as it has been for a number of years past. He stated that there were indications that an advance would be a chance in the price during the month of July.

According to the statements made by Mr. Crane, all materials and supplies used in the manufacture of ice have advanced and the company will be compelled to make an advance in price during the summer. All the employees of the plant are receiving more wages, and this with other considerations will make the advance necessary.

With the fact in the ice market of the summer, and a number of other factors, Mr. Crane stated that he expected the price of ice to be advanced during the summer. The employees of the plant are receiving more wages, and this with other considerations will make the advance necessary.

DENISON CLASS REUNION.

Granville, O., June 14.—One of the most notable and enjoyable events of the commencement week was the first annual reunion of the class of 1903, which was held in Shepardson Park on Wednesday morning. Eighteen of the class were present. After a sumptuous breakfast served by Mrs. Wm. Mitchell, a class meeting was held, presided over by the permanent president, V. Ernest Field. Those unable to be present were represented by letters which were read to the class. It was voted to hold a reunion every three years, and the second reunion will be held during the commencement week of 1909. A resolution was adopted expressing the appreciation of the class of the efforts of Dr. E. W. Hunt, the faculty and the Board of Trustees, which has made possible the splendid improvements which Denison is now enjoying. At this reunion the class presented to the university the Biological Pool, now almost finished in Shepardson Park.

Granville, June 14.—The address of T. J. Keating, Esq., of Columbus, on "The Importance of the Small College," attracted much favorable comment. It was read from manuscript.

but so admirably read as to compel careful and constant attention and delight.

Dr. Francis W. Shepardson of the University of Chicago, presided at the morning session on Wednesday, the special Anniversary Day, and made the opening remarks which voiced the loyalty of the sons of Denison who have made their mark in the world.

Dr. Ira M. Price, also of the University of Chicago, in his address on "The Growth of the Curriculum," gave an interesting and significant account of the remarkable changes and progress of the seventy-five years in the course of study at Denison. This address will be still further enlarged and will be published in the Memorial Volume in the fall.

All but two members of the class of 1903 have returned for the commencement. It is the class which has made the extensive park improvements and provided the biological pool in the old quarry, just off Burg street.

The evening session of "Special Anniversary Day" was a notable one. Judge B. F. McCann presided and the Shepardson and Denison Glee clubs both sang with great acceptance. The address of G. M. Peters, Esq., of Cincinnati, on "What Denison Stands For," was a brilliant one, and contained a striking statement of the distinctive features of Denison life, with a beautiful tribute to the influence of former Presidents and faculty and to Dr. Hunt, the present president, so beloved by all who know him.

Dr. H. L. Moorehouse, secretary of the American Baptist Home Mission society came all the way from New York to participate in the Diamond Anniversary of Denison and his address on "Our Mission in Higher Education," was a ringing declaration of the principles which underlie the work at Denison, and similar institutions.

Mr. Lewis Zollars of Canton, and daughter, are attending the anniversary and commencement exercises. Mr. Zollars is an old student of Denison and a son of Mr. David Zollars, one of Denison's trustees and generous donors.

One of the most interesting features of the anniversary week is the coming back of recent students for a first visit with their wives to Granville. Among these are Edward A. Deeds, the remarkably successful young business man of Dayton; Prof. Hugh R. Hick of Iowa; Willard A. Zimmerman of Yonkersville; Henry R. Colby of Dayton; Ernest S. Ashbrook, whose home was in Granville, and others whose wives amply vindicate the good judgment of Denison men in the choice of life companions.

The G. R. Quay of Cleveland, a noted specialist, is in attendance at the Denison commencement. He was a student at Denison, and has recently been made Dean of the Homeopathic Medical College in Cleveland.

program, was graduated in 1879. He is the distinguished orientalist of the Chicago university. Dr. Price is one of that notable family of the Welsh Hills whose six sons were all sent to college and all of whom are achieving fame in the leading professions.

ANNIVERSARY DAY

Dr. Shepardson Presided—Admirable Address by Dr. Ira Price and T. J. Keating.

Granville, June 14.—On Wednesday special exercises were held morning, afternoon and evening in the Baptist church, for the alumni of Denison, who are attending class reunions and are celebrating Denison's Diamond birthday. Addresses were made by prominent trustees and alumni and music was furnished on all three occasions. At noon, the Shepardson alumnae enjoyed the annual alumnae dinner in Doane Gymnasium and almost all present registered their names as members of the Shepardson Alumnae Association. Short speeches were made by Dr. Hunt and Dr. F. W. Shepardson, after which they retired and the luncheon was served. After luncheon all the former Shepardson faculty, the present faculty and the present senior class were introduced. Mrs. Kate Shepardson Hines presiding. Speeches were made by several of the alumnae and officers were elected for next year, announcement of which will be made later. Among the ladies who spoke were Mrs. Peters of Cincinnati, Mrs. Leiter of Zanesville, Mrs. Shepardson and Mrs. Stillwell, while the response to Mrs. Hines' talk to the seniors was made by Miss Anna Beattie of the senior class.

On Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock in Doane gymnasium, occurred class exercises of the senior class. On account of Wednesday being devoted to the interests of the alumni the usual class day exercises of the seniors were omitted from the program of commencement week and instead the class assembled on Wednesday evening to hear the class prophecy of which there were four different phases, represented by Mr. T. J. Bolger, Miss Edith Thomas, Mr. Merrill Montgomery, and Miss Mary Ferguson.

46,000 CHRISTIAN SCIENTISTS DEDICATE TEMPLE.

The New Christian Science Cathedral, Boston, With Mother Church (Small Building Beside It)

Boston, Mass., June 13.—One of the most remarkable religious demonstrations ever witnessed in New England occurred when the magnificent new $2,000,000 Christian Science Temple in the Back Bay district was dedicated. From every state in the Union and from all parts of the world came members of that faith to be present at the dedicatory services. It was estimated that more than 10,000 Christian Scientists were in the city.

In size the new structure is imposing. The gabled dome of the temple rises 24 feet above the street pavement and has a diameter of 32 feet. It is two feet higher than the monument of Bunker Hill.

There are seven chime bells in the tower, the lightest of which weighs 100 pounds and the heaviest 4,000 pounds.

The great auditorium has two tiers of galleries on one side and three on the other. The domed ceiling is supported by arches which spring from stone pillars, and the walls are decorated with carved and colored marbles representing scenes from the Bible. The cathedral's style of architecture is Italian Renaissance. The pews and other interior woodwork furnishings are of mahogany. The walls are Concord granite and Bedford stone with beautiful decorative carvings. Not the least of the impressive features of the edifice is the great organ. The cathedral organ consists of six complete organs in combination.

The story is told that Vice President Fairbanks went to a circus the other day and bought a glass of lemonade and ate peanuts. Fairbanks is sure enough candidate and is trying to get next to the people.

President Roosevelt once talked about the good trusts and the bad trusts, but just now he's having difficulty in separating the good from the bad. He has had no difficulty in getting on Democratic ground with reference to a number of public questions, and he may yet step clear over on the trust question.

Bryan and Lincoln.

(Washington Post.)
"Bryan is much like Lincoln in many ways," said former Governor William Pitt Kellogg, of Louisiana, at the Shoreham last evening. He knew both men well, is the last surviving elector on the Lincoln ticket in 1860, and Lincoln made speeches in support of his candidacy for the legislature of Illinois way back in '58. His appointment as Collector of the Port of New Orleans was signed by Lincoln the day before the latter died.

"I have noticed in hearing Bryan speak in public, and in talking to him, that he uses the same sort of epigrammatic expressions that Lincoln used," the Governor continued. "He has the same way of finding the hearts of the people. He is just as earnest and sincere, and has something of Lincoln's depth. He is a handsomer man, and a far more eloquent, though not more impressive. I verily believe he will yet be President."

For the Man Who Works at a Desk

Not Doctors, But the Right Kind of Food is What He Needs.

You work at a desk and you are shut up in an office all day long, your brain overworked, your body absolutely idle. You get "out of sorts" and your meals don't please you and what you eat doesn't agree with you.
Maybe you think you are sick, but you aren't. You need one of two things—exercise or better food, or both.
It may be impossible for you to get the exercise. It's the easiest thing in the world to get the right kind of food. Ask your grocer for Malta-Vita.
"This famous food is the whole of the wheat thoroughly steamed and cooked in absolute purity and mixed with finest malt extract, a powerful digestive agent, which quickly converts the starch of the wheat into maltose—malt sugar. Maltose is great food, and the weakest stomach digests and assimilates it without effort. The malted wheat, rolled into little flakes, is baked under such intense heat that when it comes from the great ovens, every flake is crisp, brown Malta-Vita—the most delicious food in the world. Always ready to eat.
A perfect breakfast is impossible without Malta-Vita and it's good three times a day. All grocers sell it. Now 10 cents per package.

WILL INSURE CLEAN FOOD

Meat Inspection Provision of House Committee on Agriculture.

PRODUCTS TO BE LABELED

Cost of inspection to be placed on the United States Government, an Annual Appropriation of Two Millions Being Made—Other Features of the Measure, Just Completed.

Washington, June 14.—The house committee on agriculture agreed on a meat inspection amendment to the agricultural appropriation bill. It places the cost of inspection on the government and makes an automatic appropriation of $2,000,000 a year to pay this cost. All meat and meat products which enter interstate commerce must bear government labels, with guarantee that the product has been of healthful meat and has been put up in a sanitary manner.

It is declared by the committee that the provision will insure that American meats and meat products are healthful, clean and in every respect wholesome and fit for food.

The important features of the legislation are that it places the cost of the inspection on the government and makes an annual automatic appropriation of $2,000,000 to pay the expense. It requires a rigid post-mortem and ante-mortem inspection of all animals killed for food. It requires a government label as a passport for all meat and meat products which enter interstate commerce, and in addition to this label a certificate of purity to the carrier and to the secretary of agriculture for such products which enter foreign commerce. To secure this label the product must be handled in accordance with sanitary regulations to be prescribed by the secretary of agriculture, who is authorized to employ, without regard to the civil service law, for the first year an adequate corps of efficient inspectors to supervise the enforcement of the regulation. It prohibits the use of preservatives or chemicals in the preparation of meat foods which are deleterious to health, and leaves the matter of determining this question to the secretary of agriculture. The label on the product is to indicate the ingredients, but the date of manufacture is not required to be stated.

The sanitary requirements which the secretary is to prescribe must insure complete sanitation as to all buildings, whether slaughter houses or canning establishments. There are many penalty clauses attaching to violations of all these provisions. The common carrier is subject to a heavy penalty if he accepts for transportation any goods not bearing the government label, or in case of foreign shipments, in addition to the label not accompanied by the required certificate. The packers are subject to a heavy penalty for false labeling as to contents of packages. Trade names are to be allowed in some cases, in the discretion of the secretary, but in all cases the contents of the package must be stated. The violation of any of the provisions of the regulations is made a misdemeanor, punishable by a fine not to exceed $10,000 or imprisonment not to exceed two years. There is a special penalty against the bribery of inspectors. Farmers and small butchers are excepted from the operation of the regulations.

The inspectors, in addition to their work of examination of the animals, are to make an inspection of the sanitary conditions of all the establishments in which meat food products are prepared. Appeals may be had from the decision of the inspector to the chief inspector in charge, and from his decision an appeal shall lie to the chief inspector in charge of that locality and in turn to the chief of the bureau of animal industry at Washington, and finally to the circuit court in any person, company or corporation claims to be affected injuriously by any of the rulings of lower officials.

STATEHOOD BILL.

Senate Without Division Adopts the Conference Report.

Washington, June 14.—The senate adopted without division the conference report on the statehood bill. The report was debated by Senators Foraker, Bailey, Patterson, Money, Dubois, Morgan, Stone, McCumber and others. Several Democratic senators intimated that the consolidation of Oklahoma and Indian Territory would inure to the advantage of the Republican party, and Mr. Money declared that such was the intent, and charged further that the legislation is influenced by sectionalism. He declared that one western man is equal in all the qualities of manhood to five eastern men. Senator Dubois announced his intention to vote against the acceptance of the report, because of the omission of the anti-polygamy provision inserted by the senate.

By the terms of the conference report on the statehood bill adopted by the senate and house, Indian Territory and Oklahoma are to be admitted to the Union as one state under the name of Oklahoma. The territories of New Mexico and Arizona are to be admitted as one state under the name of Arizona. The people of each of those territories vote for joint statehood at an election to be held on Nov. 6 next.

AGAINST JAPS.

Insurrection in a Korean Province. Capture a Town.

Victoria, B. C., June 14.—The steamer Tydeus, which arrived from the Orient, brought news of an insurrection in Korea, commenced on May 25, when the walled city of Hongju was attacked and seized by Korean insurgents. Hongju, in Chun Chiong province, was garrisoned by Japanese gendarmes and police. The Japanese, being short of ammunition, retired, reached Ysan and telegraphed to Seoul for assistance. A Japanese vessel is being sent to their relief. Meanwhile 300 insurgents occupied Hongju and began a revolutionary propaganda, which resulted in their force being greatly augmented, and outbreaks occurred also at Andong and Ponghawi, in Kion Song province, the rebel ranks being filled with former Korean soldiers armed with modern rifles.

GUILTY ON FOUR COUNTS

Federal Jury Finds Against Burlington Railroad Company.

GAVE REBATES TO PACKERS

Conviction Carries a Penalty of From One to Twenty Thousand Dollars on Each Count—Concession Granted by the Company on Shipments For Export.

Kansas City, June 14.—A jury in the United States circuit court returned a verdict against the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy Railroad company on four counts of granting concessions on packing house shipments, for export, to the Armon Packing company, Swift & Company, Cudahy & Company and the Nelson Morris Packing company. The conviction carries with it a fine of from $1,000 to $20,000 on each count. Judge Smith McPherson, the presiding judge, deferred sentencing the defendant until June 22. All four counts are practically the same. The case of the Armon Packing company, on which instructions were read to the jury, charged specifically that the Burlington railway, on August 17, 1905, accepted a shipment of oil from Kansas City to Liverpool at a rate that included a rate of 23 cents per hundred pounds from the Mississippi river to New York, whereas the regular tariff at that time was 35 cents per hundred. To simplify the case A. S. Van Valkenburg, district attorney for the government, and Judge O. M. Spencer of St. Joseph, representing the defendant company, signed an agreement of facts, which was in effect that the Burlington did contract with the packers to carry their products at 23 cents for the distance named, or a rate of 49 cents for the whole distance from Kansas City to Liverpool.

In his argument for the defendant company, Judge O. M. Spencer contended that the Burlington railroad had a joint rate under its contract with the Clover Leaf and the Lehigh Valley railroad to carry the packing-house products at a rate which would have been valid under the present ruling of the court had it been published. Hence the only crime, if any was committed, was the failure to publish the tariff under the contract.

District Attorney Van Valkenburg, arguing for the government, said simply that it was a plain case of violation of the Elkins act. The Burlington railway had made a contract with the packing companies at a rate of 23 cents a hundred, and had continued to live up to that contract after there had been filed with the interstate commerce commission an amended tariff of 35 cents.

WON NOMINATION

After He Had Decided to Withdraw From gubernatorial Fight.

Duluth, Minn., June 14.—The Republican state convention nominated a complete state ticket at the close of a preliminary campaign which has lasted three months, and which promised before the convention to result in the nomination of J. F. Jacobson of Madison for governor. Before the day of the convention Jacobson's nomination was practically conceded by all the politicians. The six other candidates got together, determined to withstand a Jacobson stampede, and on the fourth ballot the convention broke away and nominated A. L. Cole of Walker, a prominent leader in the last session of the house. A peculiar feature of Cole's nomination is the fact that at midnight he had decided to withdraw from the fight.

KILLS THREE MEN.

Kentucky Youth Uses His Revolver With Telling Effect.

Louisville, Ky., June 14.—A visit paid by a trio of men to the apartment of a woman resulted in the death of all three at the hands of Clarence Sturgeon, her lover. W. J. Bruner, 26; H. J. Clabby, 45, and an unidentified man about 30 years of age, all went down before the deadly aim of Sturgeon, a young man of 21. According to Sturgeon's story the three men appeared at the room of Daisy Jackson, and called for her. Sturgeon, who was within, denied them admittance. He claims they were boisterous and began to kick in the door. Their threats were followed, according to Sturgeon's statement, by attempts on the part of two of the intruders to draw revolvers, when he opened the door and confronted them. He immediately began firing, every one of the bullets taking effect.

DRAMATIC

Was the Suicide of a Civil War Veteran, Who Fired His Home.

South Norwalk, Conn., June 14.—The amazing suicide of Captain Charles J. Youngs, a civil war veteran, caused one of the greatest sensations within the memory of residents here. After setting fire to his home the captain, armed with a shotgun, held at bay 500 persons and the members of the fire department until the building was reduced to ashes. Then, with the exclamation, "See how a brave soldier can die," he blew off the top of his head while the crowd looked on. Before taking his life he visited the surrogate's office and fled his will for probate. He next visited an undertaker and paid $57 for his own funeral.

MRS. DICKERSON IS VERY ANXIOUS

SHE WANTS TO KNOW WHEN BEN IS TO BE TAKEN TO PEN ANNEX.

Thinks Her Husband is Innocent of the Murder, But Wife Isn't Sure About It.

Coshocton, O., June 14.—Mrs. Ben Dickerson wants Sheriff Browning to let her know just when he will take Ben to the penitentiary.

"I cannot even tell you," said the sheriff, "because the law is very explicit how it shall be done. You had better have the boys come down and bid him goodby at once, however."

Sheriff Browning stated that he did not himself know just when he would take Ben down, but that he did not think it would be this week.

"If I only knew myself whether Ben had done this crime or not," said Mrs. Dickerson, "I could be more reconciled. But so help me, I know no more than anyone else about it. If he is guilty of killing Mrs. Hughes, he still declares to me that he is not. The uncertainty of the facts is anguish to me. He says he did not do it, and I don't think he did. If I only knew who did and could clear this horrible mystery."

COX KILLING

Described by a Witness in the Hargis Hearing.

Jackson, Ky., June 14.—At the hearing of the Hargis case Asbury Spicer said that shortly before the killing of Dr. D. B. Cox, Hargis sent him word by Bob Deaton to come to Jackson. He went to Hargis' residence, where he found Judge Hargis, Edward Callahan, Elbert Hargis, John Smith, John Abner and Jesse Spicer. The killing of Cox was discussed. Judge Hargis, according to the witness, said that Cox was a dangerous man and was the cause of the killing of his brother, Benjamin Hargis. He said that Cox must be killed or he would destroy all the Hargises. Hargis then told John Abner, John Smith and Asbury Spicer that if they would kill Cox he would give them $100 each. They agreed, and after discussing the details of the plot about a week it was decided that Cox be shot from the shed near the Hargis residence the night of April 13. He said Smith fired the fatal shot. Two weeks later Hargis gave him $100 and a cow. Curtis Jett was the next witness, and he gave substantially the same testimony as in his confession, already printed.

MARK SLATER WANTS JOB BACK AND FILES SUIT TO OUST JOHNSON

No Graduates as the Class Goes on Strike at Canton

INDEPENDENTS WANT NEW LAWS TO FIGHT STANDARD

Iron Workers Clash--Grand Army Election--Another Miners Conference at Columbus.

Columbus, O., June 14.—On the ground that John W. Johnson of Waverly, O., who took forcible possession of the office of supervisor of public printing, is not entitled to the position for four stated reasons, Mark Slater of Dayton, the former supervisor, filed suit in ouster against Johnson in the circuit court.

Slater avers that Johnson has not been appointed to the office by Governor Pattison and has not yet had his bond approved by the governor; that his appointment has not been confirmed by the senate, and that he is not qualified for the position; that there has not been and is not now a vacancy in that office; that Johnson is ineligible to the position for the reason that he is not a practical printer, as is required by the statutes, and that the plaintiff has not been removed from the office by the governor nor has the senate advised or given its consent in the matter.

Row at Commencement. Canton, O., June 14.—When the high school commencement exercises were scheduled to take place at the Grand opera house there were no graduates on the stage. The trouble arose when Ralph Fawcett, son of Judge J. P. Fawcett, called on one of the teachers to make public explanation of certain remarks attributed to her concerning one of her class. The faculty refused to allow him to graduate. This action so incensed the rest of the class that they decided not to participate in the exercises and receive their diplomas unless Fawcett received his. President Lehman of the school board stepped upon the platform, but what he said was not heard for the audience drowned his remarks with hisses.

Want New Laws to Fight Standard. Cleveland, O., June 14.—The independent oil operators of Ohio are preparing a formal request to Governor Patterson for a special session of the state legislature. They desire the enactment of two laws that they deem necessary to insure them fair play in the fight against the Standard Oil company. The first is anti-discrimination law now in operation in Kansas and Iowa. The second is the maximum freight law, which has enabled the independent operators in Kansas to obtain equitable rates from the railroads, thus placing them on the same competitive basis as the vast Rockefeller combine.

Wants to See the Books. Cleveland, O., June 14.—A suit to prevent the Lake Shore & Michigan Southern railroad from refusing to allow him to inspect the company's books was commenced in the common pleas court here by Sidney S. Hoag of New York. Hoag says that he owns 220 shares of the company's capital stock and that he has requested permission to inspect the company's books, but that the request has been refused. He makes no charge of mismanagement and gives no reason for wanting to see the books.

Iron Workers Clash. Steubenville, O., June 14.—Structural iron workers employed at Fort Larnabee, W. Va., came across the river and a pitched battle between the non-union and the union forces was fought, with the result that one man is in a dying condition and another was seriously beaten. Seven union men attacked two non-union workers, using revolvers and bars of iron. W. M. Wilson, foreman of the non-union men, was taken to the hospital with a fractured skull and can not recover. Charles Newcomer, the engineer, was beaten into insensibility. Both live in Pittsburgh. Warrants charging attempt to murder have been issued against three of the assailants.

More Lawyers. Columbus, O., June 14.—Of the 194 men who took the state bar examination a week ago for admission to practice, 187 passed. This percentage of successful applicants is extraordinary. The class honors were awarded to John W. Camp of New Salem, who secured a grade of 95.4. There were 35 graduates from the O. S. U. law school this year.

Miller Again Convicted. Upper Sandusky, O., June 14.—William Miller, was for the second time found guilty of first degree murder, the verdict being accompanied by a recommendation for mercy. Miller was charged with the murder of W. A.

Johnson, the "Cecery King." A jury in a former trial, held five years ago, returned a verdict of second degree murder.

Fatal Mistake. Columbus, O., June 14.—Peter Trott, 62, while suffering from a headache, took by mistake for headache medicine a spoonful of phosphorus compound that had been used for poisoning rats. He died from the effects of the poison.

Grand Army Elects. Dayton, O., June 14.—The department of Ohio of the Grand Army elected the following officers: Commander, Dr. C. A. Harmon, Lancaster; senior vice commander, Theodore C. Lindsey, Dayton; junior vice commander, John Kissane, Cincinnati. A resolution was adopted endorsing General R. B. Brown of the Zanesville Courier, past department commander, for commander-in-chief at the national encampment in Minneapolis next August. The women's relief corps elected Miss Jennie Laughlin of Mansfield department president. The Sons of Veterans elected Park F. Yengling of Salem commander.

Another Miners' Conference. Columbus, O., June 14.—President William Green and other officers of the miners' organization will confer with John H. Winder, president of the Sunday Creek company, in whose hands the operators have placed their side of the controversy, with a view of determining the advisability of calling a session of the executive board of the organization to take up the negotiations. While there have been but few changes in the mining situation since the disagreement of the scale committee last week, some very optimistic views of an early settlement of the trouble are being entertained.

Strikers' Homes Riddled. Smithfield, O., June 14.—Trouble again broke out at the United States Coal company mines at Bradley, and between 200 and 300 shots were fired, wounding one woman, Concetta Aurelio, in the ankle. The houses of several of the strikers, owned by the company, were riddled with bullets, and the miners claim that it was a move of the mine guards to harass them and force them to move, other means of eviction having failed. The bullets came from the direction of the mine tipples.

Moffat Convicted. Chillicothe, O., June 14.—Thomas Moffat, alias Edward Lavery, of Toledo, was convicted of complicity in the Bainbridge bank robbery Jan. 3. A former jury disagreed.

Honorary Degrees Conferred. Zanesville, June 14.—Two honorary degrees were conferred by Muskingum college. The degree of doctor of divinity was conferred upon Rev. D. A. Dartman of New York. The degree of doctor of laws was conferred upon Rev. T. C. Stevenson editor of the Christian Statesman, at Philadelphia. He confirmed the report and said that the governor had told some of his friends that he had decided to appoint a warm personal friend.

Wells Family Reunion. Kirtlandville, June 14.—One of the most enjoyable reunions that has been held for some time was that held by the Wells family at the country home of Mr. C. N. Wells on the north of Kirtlandville Sunday. LEVI BEVARD out would spurt the blood; I saw a big pool of blood on the kitchen floor, and the lower part of the stairway; I saw blood on Mrs. Wertz's feet; saw no cuts on the body; I was present when the dogs arrived; I am a breeder and raiser of bloodhounds; I have studied the bloodhound theory; I knew these dogs; they were trained to trail human beings; I saw them start; they were taken upstairs and then came through the kitchen, out the east door and around the house; did not go to the west window." Mr. Smythe attempted to show by Dr. Smith the further course of the bloodhounds, but it was objected to by Mr. Fitzgibbon and the testimony on this point was passed.

GEORGE HANKINSON. George Hankinson was examined by Mr. Fitzgibbon.

"I lived about a mile and a half west of Frances Wertz; I knew all the roads in that vicinity." The witness described these roads, and a map was offered in evidence. "I have some feeling in this prosecution, and interfered with a reporter who was talking to Eva Wertz Wednesday in the clerk's office."

LAWYER SMYTHE RECOVERS. Attorney B. G. Smythe who was taken suddenly ill during the noon recess on Wednesday, and was unable to appear in the afternoon, for which reason court adjourned, was on hand Thursday morning and the Levi Bevard trial was resumed.

Mr. Smythe is far from well, but with his characteristic physical and mental "nerve" he is again in the thick of the legal battle being waged for the life of his client, who is accused of the murder of Mrs. Frances Wertz.

Beyond a slight pallor and an evident weakness, no one would think that the well known criminal lawyer had been ill, as his energy is unimpaired and his keen legal perception is in nowise affected.

GEORGE WARD. George Ward said he had talked to Levi Bevard and asked him if he intended to stay about the Wertz home; he said that he did; he then told Levi that he had better get another job as Mrs. Wertz was very peculiar and cross-grained; Levi said she had better let him alone or he would take a club and break her head.

Cross examined by B. G. Smythe: "Mrs. Wertz was very cross; I heard she had broken her husband's jaw and had driven him from home."

STATE RESTS. The State rested its case at 10:55, and the witnesses for the defense were called and sworn.

EVA IS RECALLED. At 11 o'clock Thursday morning Eva Wertz was called by the defendant for further cross examination. "I don't know David Albaugh or Jake Weiss; don't remember saying to anyone that I didn't know who killed grandma."

DANIEL BEVARD. The first witness called by the defense for direct examination was JURORS WORE FLAGS. Thursday was flag day and a very number of the jury had miniature of "Old Glory" pinned to the left lapel of his coat. This is the result of a tradition that in the days of the Civil War the Union flag was worn by the soldiers as a badge of honor. The jury members were seen in the day the members of the family began assembling at the hospital home of Mr. Wells and the day was spent in having a good social time, seasoned with a sumptuous dinner. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Jas. White and family, Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Jacobs and family, Mr. and Mrs. Geo.

Daniel Bevard of Crestline, a half-brother of Levi's.

"Used to live in Licking county; moved to Richland county in 1883. My father's name is Alexander Bevard; he is 84 years old, and lives with his son William Bevard, and Levi's wife in Newark; my father is in very feeble health from old age; Levi came to Licking county from Iowa about two and a half years ago, with his brother, Stephen; his father and Will came a few days before he did; heard of Mrs. Wertz's death the day after it occurred; I found William Bevard, who was working on the section near Crestline; came to the funeral of Mrs. Wertz on Saturday; examined footprints near west window; they were made by bare feet; followed them westerly through plowed ground about 30 or 40 feet; know where John Schimpf lives; the tracks were going in the direction of his house; don't know of any hog pen on the Wertz premises; would say that person making the foot prints had been walking."

THURSDAY AFTERNOON.

Daniel Bevard again took the stand and said:

"The stairway was a 2-foot 4-inch door, the door was 6 feet 4 inches, the first step 8 inches high and 10 inches wide."

The measurements were taken by witnesses and given as testimony.

Continuing he said, There were blood stains on the stairs on the inside; blood had splashed on the walls; there was no blood on the steps.

Cross examined by Mr. Fitzgibbon the witness said: "I made an examination about two weeks after the murder; was there three times; I don't know whether father is now under the care of a physician or not; the footprints I saw were not more than 20 or 24 inches apart."

ARTHUR POWELL.

"I am a gardener; I know Levi Bevard; had business with him; I consider Levi Bevard a first class man in every respect."

The witness was asked as to whether, from his knowledge of Bevard's character he would be capable of committing the crime alleged. This question was objected to and the objection sustained.

Continuing Mr. Powell said:

"I saw Bevard with his brother, Steve, the evening before the murder, coming from town; I don't know what kind of a hat Levi had on at that time, he generally wore a soft hat, this was about 7 o'clock; I saw John Baird at this time, shortly after I saw Levi; I next saw Levi on the morning after, about 5 o'clock; he was walking from his kitchen toward a wood pile; I heard of Mrs. Wertz's death in Newark the next morning; my daughter broke the news to Levi that morning at about 9 o'clock; I was not there at the time, but she went from my house for that purpose."

Cross examined by Mr. Fitzgibbon, witness said:

"The only way I know that my daughter broke the news to Levi was from what my wife told me; I never knew until he came to work for William Hall; I sold him some corn and some fodder; outside of these transactions I didn't have any personal knowledge of Bevard; his wife bought garden truck from me, and Levi would come around and pay for it; I saw him at least three or four times a week; often talked with him; he came over to my house frequently; he has been a first class gentleman in his dealings with me."

CHARACTER WITNESSES.

The defense began at the Thursday afternoon session to introduce character witnesses, to prove that Bevard was a man of quiet and peaceable habits. This will be accompanied by a plea that Bevard was not present at the time of the murder at the Wertz home, and attempt to establish an alibi. Several character witnesses were examined.

MANY WOMEN PRESENT.

A remarkable circumstance which is noticeable is the preponderance of the attendance of women. They crowd the doorways, the aisles and are occupying nearly every seat.

W. C. HALL.

"While Bevard worked for me he was an excellent farm hand, and his work was perfectly satisfactory. The day before the killing he was building a fence; he said he would have to quit early that day, as he had an errand in Newark; he always seemed a good humor while he worked for me; saw him that evening near his home; he came to work about 5 o'clock the next morning in the back yard; near the wood pile, he was walking toward the house; met him about 7 o'clock and told him what I wanted done; I didn't notice anything peculiar about his actions; about 10 o'clock he came and told me that Mrs. Wertz had been killed; he and his wife were in a buggy, and returned about 5 o'clock that evening."

Cross examined by Mr. Fitzgibbon: "As far as I know he was a satisfactory farm hand and appeared to be sober, but further than this I don't know him; never knew him before I hired him."

On redirect examination witness said: "A few habits were right."

CHARLES HARTSHORN.

Charles Hartshorn, a farmer living west of Newark was examined by B. G. Smythe:

"I know Bevard; 'neighbored' with him often across the fence; never saw anything wrong with him or against him; his disposition and character as a quiet citizen is good."

Cross examination by Mr. Fitzgibbon brought out nothing new.

Robert McMillen, a farmer, in the Cherry Valley, testified that Bevard, as far as he knew, was a peaceable citizen.

Cross examined by Mr. Fitzgibbon: "Exchanged work with Bevard; worked with him three or four times in two years; he was a good farm hand; don't know him socially."

THOMAS RICHARDS.

"Live on Granville road, about a mile from William Hall's place; know Levi Bevard; his character is good as far as I know; have worked together, and have found him to be peaceable."

Cross examined by Mr. Fitzgibbon.

"Never had any business dealings with Bevard, nor any social visits with him."

WILLIAM BEVARD.

Will Bevard, a brother of the defendant, was called and examined by Mr. B. G. Smythe.

"I was born in Licking county and then went to Iowa; my father is Alexander Bevard; he is very poorly and is just able to walk; when Levi and I came to Licking county we took up our home in a cabin about a mile from my aunt's; Mrs. Wertz's home; my father Levi, and brother Stephen, lived there, we worked in the timber; my aunt, Mrs. Francis Wertz, came to Levi and asked him to work on her place, doing chores; father afterwards went to live with Levi, when the latter went to work for Mr. Hall; Levi took care of him; father could not turn over in bed or dress himself; some times he had to be helped out of bed every hour during the night."

"A question was asked as to Levi's habits as to being a drinking man, to which Mr. Fitzgibbon objected, and the objection was sustained by the court."

"I was in Crestline when I heard of Mrs. Wertz's death and got here Friday evening."

FIFTH MURDER TRIAL.

Since the new court room was opened last January nothing but criminal cases have been tried in it. The Bevard case now on trial makes the fifth first degree murder case to be tried in the new court room.

Our entire line of Summer Silks and Foulard Silks will be offered tomorrow at 4c a yard.

The names of sixteen men are now on the pay rolls of the Newark baseball club. This is probably the largest number of men being carried by any team in the circuit. This does not include the name of Al Schweitzer, who has been laid off until his ankle repairs sufficiently to allow him to get back into the game. A new name was added this morning and on taken off. Ed Schlatter, the crack first sacker who played in the Monday New Castle game, has been secured and will be in the game this afternoon providing the rain man does not interfere again.

The deal which made Schlatter a Newark man was completed last night and he came to Newark from Mansfield, where he has been with his team. Manager J. Percy has secured the services of a new catcher, Sweeney by name and he with Murphy will be used on the first sack.

Fred Markle the big Toledo man who worked for several games, was released. A member of the company stated that the trimming would soon be commenced, but assured the writer that Boyd and Reagan would be retained. In conversation with a member of the Newark team who talked with New Castle players, it was stated that nearly every member of the Necks' team was dissatisfied with his job. The most of the members are from the Outlaw league and Schlatter was not. This made his existence there all the more distasteful. An Akron paper states that Stetler is displeased with the town and would like very much to get out.

New Castle 5, Mansfield 3. Mansfield, June 14.—Mansfield's chronic ailment, inability to hit, gave New Castle an easily earned victory, as Jackson fanned 13-batters and Mansfield could not hit when hits were needed. HAGAMAN-OLDAKER.

One of the most brilliant of the June weddings was celebrated Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Oldaker, near Centerville, when their eldest daughter, Miss Clara Lurah, was united in marriage to Mr. Herman Edward Hagaman of Lorain. The house was attractively decorated with ferns, vines and blossoms, being completely transformed into a bower of June loveliness. The color scheme throughout was pink and white. Rev. Homer Smith of St. Paul's church officiated.

The bride's sisters, Misses Nina and Eva Oldaker, were the bridesmaids. Mr. Walter Hagaman, a brother of the groom acted as best man. The bride was charmingly gowned in white chiffon and carried bride's roses. Fifty guests were present.

The bride has been a popular teacher in the Delaware schools, and the groom is a prominent business man of Lorain. Their marriage is the culmination of a romance begun during college days.

HALF AND HALF BRIDE AND GROOM

Chicago, June 14—Half and Half arrived in Chicago and the baggage men at the Lexington hotel have been busy ever since removing large red posters from suit cases and suitcases.

The posters, which were printed in red and with very conspicuous letters, bore this announcement:

"Just Married. You can recognize us by our glad faces."

Half and Half—in other words Morris Half of Pittsburgh and his better half—came from Waterloo, Ind., where they were married Tuesday evening.

They are now on their honeymoon trip and halted here to have the posters removed from their luggage.

Until she became the better half, Mrs. Morris Half was Mrs. Carrie Israel of Waterloo. Mr. Half is one of three brothers, Felix and Rue Half being the others.

The couple are a very nature business in Pittsburgh, Messrs. Felix Half and Rue Half and their better halves are also here, assisting in the festivities.

It then happened there are six halves or three Half and Halfs and Halfs here, who have been one of the most famous of the city.

BOILER BURSTS AT BLACK HAND

FORTUNATELY HANDS WERE FAR ENOUGH AWAY TO ESCAPE INJURY.

Oil Struck in Well No. 1 But Extent of the Flow of Fluid is Not Yet Known.

The boiler of the engine in operation at the second well, being drilled by the E. H. Everett Company near the stone crusher at Black Hand, burst Wednesday afternoon, and the operations at that well have been temporarily suspended. The crown sheet in the boiler gave way, but luckily all the hands working about the engine were far enough distant at the time to escape injury. This well which has been ready to drill in for several days, will be delayed for some time.

This is the second well which has been drilled by Mr. Everett at Black Hand, the first one having been drilled several weeks ago. It is said that a good flow of oil has been secured, but it is not known whether the second well will produce oil or gas.

No oil has yet been pumped from the well on account of the scarcity of water. As soon as the water supply can be secured the work of pumping oil will be commenced.

The brightness of the corona or ring of light encircling the sun, was measured by Mr. Charles Fabry during the last total eclipse. He found the light of a point a twentieth degree from the sun's edge to be equivalent to about 729 candle power, or a little more than a fourth of the brightness of the full moon. The sky near the unobscured sun is 2,000 times as bright.

HORSE AND BUGGY ARE RECOVERED

BUT MEN WHO ROBBED STORES IN WESTERN LICKING CO. AREN'T CAUGHT.

Mr. Simmons Heaviest Loser Places Loss at $60—Did Men Get Wrong Horse?

No new clues have been discovered as to the perpetrators of the burglaries at Kinkersville and Pataskala excepting the fact that the horse and buggy taken from Mr. John Friend of Pataskala was found about daylight Wednesday by Mr. H. Poff on the Etna-Basil road a few miles south of Etna. The horse was wandering down the road hitched to the empty buggy when found by Mr. Poff.

Mr. W. H. Simmons, the heaviest loser in the affair, now estimates the value of the goods stolen from him at about $60.

There is considerable difference of opinion as to whether or not the men who visited the Pataskala stores and those who visited Kinkersville are the same, but several facts connected with the affair tend to give the impression that both jobs were done by the same parties.

It is now believed that the parties made a mistake in getting Friend's horse, for Dr. Bell of Pataskala stated that the strangers who were seen about the town were talking with him about his horse, remarking that it was a good looking animal and that it looked like it could travel at a pretty good rate, to which the doctor replied in the affirmative. Dr. Bell's barn adjoins that of Mr. Friend, and it is believed that the parties got the wrong horse on this account.

Mr. Bear, residing in another end of the town, says that about 3 o'clock he happened to look out of his window in the direction of his barn in time to see someone strike a match. He stopped quickly to the door and saw what they wanted and why they were striking matches about his barn. For answer Mr. Bear was told to get back in the house and mind his own business.

BARN BURNS, EIGHT HORSES DIE

Rev. Mr. Christman Near Croton Suffers Loss of $3000—Fire Thursday Noon Destroys Creamery Skimming Station at Jersey.

Croton, O., June 14—Fire destroyed the barn of Rev. Mr. Christman of Knox county, about midnight Wednesday. Eight valuable horses were destroyed, as well as farming implement, grain, etc. The loss is estimated to be about $3,000, having an insurance of $1000. The origin of the fire is unknown.

FIRE BUG AT WORK.
Mt. Vernon, June 14—The worst fire since the Knox county fire bug began his career of arson occurred near Centerville this morning when two large barns of Rev. Geo. Christman were destroyed. Seven head of cattle burned and a large number of buggies, sleighs and vehicles were destroyed entailing a property loss of several thousand dollars.

Deputy Fire Marshal Hartup is sure the fire is the work of the Mt. Vernon fire bug, and he is on the scene to investigate. The operations of the incendiary or incendiaries who have destroyed a dozen barns in and near Mt. Vernon during the last three weeks have become more bold. Scarcely a night now passes that an attempt is not made to destroy some barn. John Piarna who has been committed to the asylum for insanity and Fred Harrington are charged with starting the fires. The former confessed. There is a general belief that an organized gang is at work.

BLAZE AT JERSEY.
Jersey, O., June 14—The Creamery Skimming station at Jersey was burned this noon, the first totally destroying the building. The loss is estimated at about $1600. The cause of the fire is unknown. Mr. Parker, who has charge of the station, was absent at the time, being in Somerset delivering cream.
